

World AATHO Medical Science Research Council, established in Govt of India Act. At that time acupuncture, AATHO Medical science was legalized in India and the citizens of India requesting many qualified skill acupuncturists to provide the services for them. The establishment for the World AATHO Medical Science Research Council was to organize all license acupuncturists, AATHO System Practitioner, together to strive their right, to obtain high level education to service the citizens in their best.

World AATHO Medical Science Research Council, is a not for profit professional association of practitioners of Chinese medicine and AATHO medical science. It is registered and organized in accordance with applicable laws of the Govt of India Act. It is not involved in or inclined to any kind of political thoughts, parties or entities.

World AATHO Medical Science Research Council aims at promoting the practice of Chinese medicine and Chinese medicine and AATHO medical science in protecting human health, certified acupuncturists, AATHO System Practitioner and striving for their benefits regardless of race of national origin.

World AATHO Medical Science Research Council has been growing continually. Its members come from all over India and Worldwide. Its excellent reputation has been passed through the government to the ordinary people. It became so well known in India because of its history and its outstanding contribution to the human health Service.

Here are the major achievements World AATHO Medical Science Research Council, had made years:

1. Established a communicated bridge between the India government and the acupuncturists, AATHO System Practitioner, so the opinions of the India can be delivered.
2. Promoted the new AATHO bills and legislative polices and protect the acupuncturists, AATHO System Practitioner, legal right and benefits.
3. Provided high level continue education courses to the members and other acupuncturists, AATHO System Practitioner, so the India's receive satisfied medical services.
4. Contributed to promote Chinese medicine becoming a part of the health art and avoid suffering from the side affects of the conventional medicine.
5. all the acupuncturists, AATHO System Practitioner, and provide them medical moral educations, so they are able to service the patients as a doctor, not as business person, regardless of wealth, race and gender.

Over the years, by constant efforts, the independent rights of diagnosis and treatment has been strived for acupuncturists, AATHO System Practitioner and the acupuncture treatment has been accepted in work injury insurance in India, as well as the acupuncture rights of the Medical patients in India.

BENEFITS OF REGISTERING

1. The Registered Acupuncturist would be declared a person qualified to practice and shall not be convicted or punished by Government of India.
2. A One Time Register Fee
3. No cost Alternative medical camp
4. Guiding Higher Educations
5. Update information about AATHO Medical Science
6. Consultations on 'How to Increase Your Practice'
7. We get benefits from W.H.O. / Central & State Government Polices.
8. Referral for Professional Liability Insurance.
9. Award and Honors.

Contact No: +91 8012634545 E-mail: worldaathocouncil@gmail.com